14th Australian Wine Industry Technical Conference Volunteer Program

The AWRI, in conjunction with the Australian Wine Industry Technical Conference, is calling for applications from students to volunteer to be involved in the 14th Australian Wine Industry Technical Conference at the Adelaide Convention Centre, North Terrace, Adelaide, 3 – 8 July 2010. The conference includes an extensive workshop program with volunteers being involved in pouring wine, setting up and clearing wine glasses, and other tasks, before, during and at the conclusion of the workshops. Participating volunteers will have the chance to hear from Australian and international industry representatives and be part of a major industry event. More information about the conference and workshop program can be found here. Applications close Monday 10 May 2010.

Successful applicants will:

- receive a free student registration to the 14th Australian Wine Industry Technical Conference, including lunches, and entrance to WineTech 2010 – the Australian Wine Industry trade exhibition;
- have the opportunity to network and engage with key industry personnel;
- be part of a major event on the wine industry calendar.

Eligibility criteria:

Applicants must be:

- 18 years of age or older;
- students of an Australian university (wine or grape related discipline/program);
- available for the entire 5 day event (required days are Saturday 3 July, Sunday 4 July, Monday 5 July, Tuesday 6 July, Thursday 8 July with some days requiring availability from 7 am to 7 pm - volunteers are welcome to attend the conference sessions on Wednesday 7 July);
- available to attend a briefing session at the Adelaide Convention Centre on Friday 1 July;
- NB: students are responsible for their own travel and accommodation requirements
